

PRAY AND ACT FOR PEACE

Your peace is here

As unrest swells around the world and peace can seem to shrivel,
the darkness of doubt can ever more creep,
that Your Peace – True Peace – is only an idea.
A wisp of a dream not meant for earth-bound mortal folk.

Loosen us from the fears with which we so diligently burden ourselves,
Throw off the blinders that fit so comfortably when in the bad part of town.

Pour salt on wounds we'd rather ignore,
and cast your light and love on those places darkness persists.

In you we are knit in hope, in strength for all that daunts.
Thank you.

Your Peace is here – in me, in us – today. Prepare us to carry it forth, to brighten this world you've given.
Amen.
