

July 1-3, 2003

Georgia Baptist
Conference Center

Toccoa, Georgia

A Peace Gathering

Keynote speakers

Vincent and Rosemarie Harding, veteran teachers and leaders in nonviolent social change

Bible study leader

Ruby Sales, Director of SpiritHouse, Washington, D.C.

Also featuring

Musical ensemble, Revelation 7:9, Drumming for Peace youth program, children's program, worship, workshops, and recreation.

Sponsored by

For more information

PJSN web site: <http://peace.MennoLink.org>
Contact: Leo Hartshorn, Minister of Peace and Justice, Mennonite Mission Network, 717-399-8353, LeoH@MennoniteMission.net

The Civil Rights Movement as a Model of Social Transformation

July 1-3, 2003

Georgia Baptist
Conference Center

Toccoa, Georgia

A Peace Gathering

Keynote speakers

Vincent and Rosemarie Harding, veteran teachers and leaders in nonviolent social change

Bible study leader

Ruby Sales, Director of SpiritHouse, Washington, D.C.

Also featuring

Musical ensemble, Revelation 7:9, Drumming for Peace youth program, children's program, worship, workshops, and recreation.

Sponsored by

For more information

PJSN web site: <http://peace.MennoLink.org>
Contact: Leo Hartshorn, Minister of Peace and Justice, Mennonite Mission Network, 717-399-8353, LeoH@MennoniteMission.net

The Civil Rights Movement as a Model of Social Transformation