

Women and Migration

Hope in the midst of violence

Learning Tour for Women

October 12-22, 2008

Traveling to:

Tucson, AZ & Mexico/US border
Chiapas, Mexico &
Guatemala/Mexico border

To learn and understand:

- ✍ Particular social realities experienced by women in Central America and Mexico
- ✍ Root causes of economic and social conflicts which lead women to migrate
- ✍ Experiences of women during their migration journeys and in the US
- ✍ Women's efforts to create viable alternatives to migration
- ✍ Mexican and US immigration policies and practices
- ✍ The work of MCC partners to respond to these realities

To commit to:

- ✍ Sharing these stories and realities with others
- ✍ Personal change
- ✍ Solidarity with women in Central America and Mexico
- ✍ Action and advocacy for justice

Cost: $1500 + travel to Tucson and from Chiapas

Registration Deadline: July 15, 2008

For more information and to register, contact:

MCC US Women's Advocacy Program
Jared Hankee or Linda Gehman Peachey
(717) 859-1151, (888) 563-4676, jhankee@mcc.org

Sponsored by:

MCC Latin America & Caribbean Programs
MCC Mexico Program
MCC US Women's Advocacy Program
Peace and Justice Support Network of Mennonite Church USA